A cartoon illustration of a girl with curly hair, wearing a dress, standing on a grassy hill. She is looking towards a flag on a pole. The flag is white with a black border and has the number '10' written on it. The pole is black and white striped. In the background, there is a tree with a thick trunk and some leaves. The ground is represented by simple lines and wavy patterns.

A photograph of a social gathering, likely a Christmas party. In the foreground, a woman in a pink jacket is seated at a table with glasses and plates. In the background, two women are standing near a microphone, one holding a small object. The room has wood-paneled walls and a large window with curtains.

Thursday style show set at country club

"JR for President" is the theme for a fashion show and bridge luncheon to be held Thursday at Astoria Golf and Country Club.

Tiah Van Dusen will be commentator for the show, which will feature fall fashions from Schumacher's Furs, Kay Lynn's, Ter Har's, Reed and Grimberg Shoes and the club's pro shop. An 11 a.m. social hour will begin the event. Lunch will follow at noon and the style show will be at 12:30 p.m. Bridge play will follow the program.

Cathy Leinassar is chairwoman of the afternoon fashion show and bridge luncheon. Assisting her are Paivi Ter Har, Robin Daggatt and Mrs. Van Dusen.
